FIRST READING EMERGENCY RESOLUTION REFERRED

Res. No. 286-15.

By Council Member Brancatelli.
An emergency resolution urging the U.S. Congress to pass the Marketplace Fairness Act of 2015 which requires online retailers to charge and collect sales tax just as brick-and-mortar retailers must do.

Whereas, the Marketplace Fairness Act of 2015 will close the loophole that gives an unfair advantage to online retailers by allowing them to avoid charging and collecting sales tax in states where they do not have a warehouse or other physical presence; and

Whereas, this exception gives online sellers, like Amazon.com and eBay.com a 7-8 percent price advantage over brick-and-mortar stores that must charge sales tax; and

Whereas, the loophole also gives consumers the wrong impression that their online purchases are "tax free", while in reality, people in Ohio are to keep track of online sales, figure the sales tax and pay it along with their state income taxes; and

Whereas, brick-and-mortar retailers are not only forced to compete against the online retailer that doesn't charge a sales tax, they also must pay higher property taxes and higher sales taxes as a result of the eroding tax base; and

Whereas, U.S. lawmakers are beginning to understand that it is imperative to level the playing field because brick-and-mortar retailers are struggling to survive as more people purchase goods online and there are now more online sales than there are department store sales; and

Whereas, it is estimated that Ohio lost "tens of millions of dollars in uncollected tax revenue from Ohioans who bought their 2014 holiday gifts from online sellers"; and

Whereas, this resolution constitutes an emergency measure for the immediate preservation of public peace, property, health, or safety, now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Council of the City of Cleveland:

Section 1. That this Council urges the U.S. Congress to pass the Marketplace Fairness Act of 2015 which requires online retailers to charge and collect sales tax just as brick-and-mortar retailers must do.

Section 2. That the Clerk of Council is hereby directed to transmit copies of this resolution to all members of the United States Congress.

Section 3. That this resolution is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and, provided it receives the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to Council, it shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its adoption and approval by the Mayor; otherwise, it shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.
