Ord. No. 1156-14.

By Council Members Cimperman, Kelley, Reed, Sweeney, Pruitt, K. Johnson, Cleveland, Mitchell, Dow, Polensek, Conwell, J. Johnson, Brady, Brancatelli, Cummins, Zone and Keane.

An emergency ordinance designating East 8th Street between Euclid and Prospect Avenues with a secondary and honorary designation of "City Club Way".

Whereas, the City Club has made a home at 850 Euclid Avenue since 1983, and some 15 years ago, the Citizens Building became The City Club Building; and

Whereas, the City Club has had a few homes over the years, starting with Weber's Restaurant off Public Square in 1912 and perhaps most famously on Short Vincent Street; and

Whereas, the City Club was founded by some of the great men of our local history, including Mayor Newton D. Baker, Rabbi Moses Gries, Ralph Hayes, and Mayo Fesler; and

Whereas, but in these last three decades, civic leaders have convened on a regular basis in the City Club's second floor home for civic dialogue with the express purposes of engaging the community and finding solutions to the problems we share; and

Whereas, the City Club has had its share of famous speakers — from Cesar Chavez to Oliver North, House Speakers Newt Gingrich and Nancy Pelosi, Pei Min Xing of the Tiannamen Square protests to Condoleezza Rice — Robert F. Kennedy to Ronald Reagan, as well as sitting U.S. Presidents; and

Whereas, even more than its famous speakers, the City Club is most proud of the service it provides for the community; and

Whereas, for over 100 years, the City Club has provided a place and a practice of bringing people together to think together about how we can improve our community, how we can make government work better, how we can strengthen our neighborhoods, and how we can respond to the crises that emerge; and

Whereas, it is the place where current and emerging leaders share their vision for moving the community forward, and where candidates for elective office join in dialogue and debate so that voters can make informed decisions; it is also the place where constituents ask vital questions of their elected leaders; and

Whereas, the citizens of Cleveland want to honor the legacy and continued service of the City Club, devoted as it has been for more than a century to celebrating Cleveland's devotion to civic engagement and free speech, with a street sign designation of "City Club Way"; and,

Whereas, this ordinance constitutes an emergency measure for the immediate preservation of public peace, property, health or safety; now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Council of the City of Cleveland:

Section 1. That East 8th Street between Euclid and Prospect Avenues is designated with a secondary and honorary designation of "City Club Way".

Section 2. That this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and, provided it receives the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to Council, it shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its adoption and approval by the Mayor; otherwise it shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.
